

1 The Ayes have it unanimously, and it is so
2 ordered.

3 The Chair recognizes Delegate Byrnes.

4 DELEGATE BYRNES: Mr. Chairman, I would like
5 to take this opportunity to announce, first of 6 all, that the Committee on Style, Drafting and Arrangement
7 will meet immediately after the session, on adjournment,
8 at the Maryland Inn, for a dinner and presentation of 9 gifts, et cetera, to our "beloved chairman". (Laughter.)

10 I would like the ladies and gentlemen of the 11 Convention to join with me in commending Chairman Penniman
12 for the magnificent job he has done under tremendous 13 pressure over the past so many weeks.

14 I think you all know that the job of the Chair-
15 man of the Committee on Style of the Consitutional
16 Convention with a deadline looming before us constantly
17 requires a good nature; it requires tact; it requires
18 diplomacy par excellance; it requires skill; professional 19 judgment; scholarship; and constant attention to the 20 intention of the Committee of the Whole and the committee.

21 Chairman Penniman met all these, and I ask you
